RMIT- Research Seminar Presentation

Expanding dimension - 700 w x 700 L x 700 H - Aug 2010

Lloyd Godman

When: Wed 29 Sept 2010

Time: 2.30pm - 3.30pm

Where: Building 7 level 2 Room 44

From the early 1980s, Godman's art practice has always been innovative, experimental and ecologically based. His recent work investigates a paradigm shift that moves art from not only commenting on environmental issues but contributing to the environment through living plant works in what is termed : super-sustainable art
